Edmeades

Petite Sirah 2015

USA > California > Mendocino County

Dry, Red, Still wine

99% Petite Sirah, 1% Zinfandel

The 2015 Mendocino Petite Sirah displays aromas of blueberry compote, toasty oak, vanilla, and roasted coffee beans. The wine is dense and full-bodied, with flavors of black and blue fruits. Smoked meat and spice characteristics accentuate the finish. The tannins are firm, yet approachable.

About us

Edmeades is pure Mendocino, famous for its limited bottlings from the Mendocino Ridge and the Redwood and Ukiah valleys of Northern California. It is the authentic taste of one of California's final viticultural frontiers — the Anderson Valley. It all started in 1963 when Dr. Donald Edmeades, a cardiologist from Pasadena, planted 24 acres of vines, becoming the first modern-day grape grower in this cool, coastal region. He founded his winery and launched the Edmeades brand in 1972. The Jackson family purchased the winery and its vineyards in 1988.
