Fait-Main Beckstoffer Missouri Hopper Vineyard Cabernet Sauvignon 2018

USA > California > Napa Valley
100% Cabernet Sauvignon

beckstoffervineyards.com: „Located north of the town of Yountville in the Oakville AVA, Beckstoffer Missouri Hopper was originally part of a large piece of land owned by George C. Yount, from whom the town of Yountville takes its name. Purchased by Charles Hopper and given to his daughter Missouri in 1877, the land was planted to wine grapes and, as much of the Napa land was at that time, prunes and walnuts. [...] Purchased by Beckstoffer Vineyards from the Kelham family in 1996, the vineyard is today planted with multiple clones of Cabernet Sauvignon.“ The third 2018 Cab from Ben: Outstanding!

About us

A few years ago in California, Benoit Touquette was one of the rising superstars in the wine scene. However, at the latest with the reviews of Robert Parker and Lisa Perrotti-Brown for the wine "The Absurd" by Realm Cellars, the adjective "rising" was a thing of the past. In addition to Realm Cellars, where Benoit works as an active partner and also in the actual winemaking, he looks after a number of other wineries and also finds time for his very own projects: Fait-Main and Teeter-Totter.

Alc.: 14.60 %
