About us

Astrolabe Wines is owned and operated by the Waghorn family in Marlborough, New Zealand. Winemaker Simon Waghorn harnesses Marlborough's unique growing conditions to craft extraordinary wines that express the landscape in which they were produced. Simon's daughters, Libby and Arabella, are committed to sharing our wine and our story – family, community, integrity and quality. Astrolabe is particularly known for Sauvignon Blanc and has been described by Bob Campbell MW as "New Zealand's leading Sauvignon Blanc maker."
